

The image shows a technical drawing of a form template, labeled "Form 51 4+0". The form is rectangular with rounded corners and a light blue background. It features two main sections: "BAGSIDE" on the left and "FORSIDE" on the right, both labeled in red boxes. The form is divided into four vertical sections by dashed lines. The top and bottom edges are defined by solid orange lines, with the bottom edge having a central section that is wider than the sides. The left and right sides are also defined by solid orange lines, with the top corners being rounded. The overall layout is symmetrical.
